National Union Republican Ticket. POS PRESIDENT

ULYSSES & GRANT POB VICE PRESIDENT, HENRY WILSON, of Massachusetts. For Presidential Electors. AT LABOR.

WM. E. STEVENSON, of Wood. THOMAS B, SWANN, of Kanawha. ad-THOMAS R. CARSKADON, of Mineral. 3d-JOSEPH H. NASH, of Kanawha.

To the People of West Virginia. from all parts of the State, I have consented to J. J. JACOB.

held a high place in its esteem, took advantage of the confidence reposed in them to make a raid on the treasury, in violation of law and honesty. Gov. JACOB, so far as his authority enabled before the Legislature; and for weeks they were thoroughly canvassed at the seat of government, among members of the Legislature, citizens, officials and visitors; and through these the undoubted state of the case was disseminated throughout the

The war on Gov. JACOB by the plunderers began even before they had been exposed. It began just as soon as they found him an obstacle; and it has been waged ever since. There is no ignorance that this hostility to him was the chief element that consummated his ostracism at, Parkersburg. The simple state of the this aftern case is that the Ring who were caught last winter with their arms up to the elbows unlawfully in the public Treasury, and who are esger and hungry to get then there again, want to drive Mr. Jacon from the executive chair, that there may be no more executive hostility to their plundering schemes and that there may be the least possible fuss about past offences.

Mr. Jacob has been brought forward by honest men in his own party as the antag onist of this villiany, whether accomplished or purposed. The question the Democrats of the State have got to decide among themselves is whether they will sustain him in this attitude, and thereby redeem their pledges; or whether they will allow the plundering crew to strike him down, to the overthrow and abandonment o those pledges. This is the naked question, gentlemen, and whether you like or not you have got to face it.

We do not as yet consider the Democrats responsible as a party for the robbery of the treasury referred to. They have not had an opportunity to pass upon it as a party. They will have that opportu nity at the coming election; and if they vote the candidate of the peculators into power, and thus vote for a continuance of peculation, then they will be responsible as a party and the protest of a minority will not save them from the stigma.

We say to our Democratic friends that We say to our Democratic Irlends that the responsibility of deciding this question Plumber, Brass Founder belongs to them. The Republicans, as a minority, have none of it. They are duty bound to co-operate with those of their political adversaries who seek to put down the plunderers, but it the effort tails the responsibility will rest with the party in possession of the government. If the Democrats think they can afford to elect the ticket whose nomination was engineered and dictated by this Ring, who hope by its success not only to escape the consequences of oftences already committed but to find Gas Fixtures & Kerosene Lamps opportunities for unlimited repetitions of their rascalities in future, let them try it. Those who protest against it by supporting Jacon will, at the worst, have the satisfaction of finding that when the crash does come—as come it will—they at least will not be buried in the ruins. But there are the most cheering indications from all quarters, that the days of this Ring are numbered, and that by the time election comes round few Democrats of character and repute will be found supporting a nomination tainted by the venal championship of the Wheeling Register and Charleston Courier.

Jacob Men in Ohio County. (From Yesterday's Register.)

"We say,in all candor, to the Democrats of the State, that the defection of Jacob will cause no defection in the ranks of the Democracy of Ohio county, &c., &c." We don't know about the "defection," but if half the Democrats in this county do not vote for JACOB, then no faith can be reposed in anything men say. A gen- Graham or Dyspensia Biscuit tlemen told us on the street last evening that in an establishment which he named twenty Democrats were employed, every one of whom are Jacon men. We mention that just as a sample of the way the thing is going in this county. Here the Democrats understand the motives that underlie the Wheeling Register's opposition to Mr. JACOB, and value its fulminations at their true worth.

THE Democrats refuse to listen to the suggestion of SAM BOWLES to nominate CHARLES SUMNER at Baltimore. They say they must really make a stand somewhere for consistency's sake,

A Misapprehension. Yesterday's Cumberland News says: Gov. J. J. Jacob, of West Virginia, was candidate before the recent West Vir-

a Candidate Detore the recent West Virginia Democratic nominating Convention for renomination. He was defeated by Hon. J. N. Camden. Gov. Jacob and his friends claimed that he was defeated by unfair means, and the Governor, at the request of many friends in and out of the Democratic party, has decided to run as an inderendent candidate. an independent candidate.

The News is in error. Gov. JACOB WAS not a candidate before the Parkersburg Convention. The Convention was so manifestly packed by Campen, Walker BAKER & Co., that Mr. Jacon declined to have anything to do with the Convention, and his name was not before it at all The News is quite correct, however,

"Gov. Jacob is a gentleman who will do honor to any station."

New Labor Party Proposed. N. Y. Cor. Phil. Ledger) The eight-hour movement is about to take a turn which will be likely to sur-prise the "regular" politicians. I learn from good authority that some of the more active of the leaders have been in Are Democratic Pledges to be Keptt;

When the Democratic party of West Virginia came into power, it was upon the strongest pledges of honesty in the conduct of the State government. The issue that has been made in the party by the candidacy of Gov. Jacob peculiarly involves the question whether those pledges shall be kept. It was the misfortune of the party that, during its very first year of power, some parties who held a high place in its esteem took ad-

And now we hear of another of tho lively old gentlemen out in Wayne town ship, who, though pretty nearly as old as the Declaration of Independence, is JACOB, so far as his authority enabled him, interposed himself between the raiders and the treasury. The people all over the State know these things are true.

The facts were fully disclosed in public, quid of tobacco where it would not get disfigured, and "went for" the untamed colt. After an exciting skirmish of an hour, the steed was thrown to the floor subdued, and when one of the horsetamer's offspring, a youth of forty came out to see what the old man was doing, he found the latter calmly seated on the pro-trate beast, reading Horace Greeley's letter of acceptance, intersperced with cheerful music on a tin pan, all of which the colt stood without a murmur.
